

Social Studies Instructor (Long term sub)

Saint Paul Diocesan Jr/Sr High School seeks an energetic, confident, adaptive, and faith-filled individual for the position of social studies instructor (long term sub).

Founded in 2020, Saint Paul Diocesan Junior/Senior High School is a co-educational, multicultural, faith-filled Catholic Community rooted in God's love and the Joy of the Gospel. Together, we form our minds, hearts, and souls in pursuit of excellence by seeking to develop the whole person. Conscious of Jesus' message that lasting happiness is found in love of God and neighbor, we strive to grow intellectually, spiritually, and morally in light of the great Catholic intellectual tradition. With God's grace, we endeavor to strengthen our relationship with God, and to use our knowledge and unique gifts in service to others. As the newest and largest Catholic, co-educational, regional junior/senior high school of Worcester County, Saint Paul is an educational ministry sponsored and operated by the Roman Catholic Diocese of Worcester.

This is a per-diem position. A bachelor's degree (advanced degree preferred) in the relevant instructional domain is desired.

Review of applications will begin immediately and the position will remain open until filled. Interested candidates are requested to electronically submit a cover letter and resume to:
